

Global Business Partners Privacy and Cookies policy

For the purpose of applying Personal Information Protection Act Article 30, Global Business Partners (GBP) is committed to protecting your privacy and hereby disclose our privacy policy.

1. Purpose of Personal Information processing

Global Business Partners collects and processes information for the following purposes:

To register your account
To send promotional materials
To send you e-mails and newsletters
IT updates and notifications

2. Providing the Personal Information to the Third Party

GBP does not provide personal information to the third party unless with the consent of information holder or in the case of specific rules in law such as those listed in Personal Information Protection Act Article 17.

3. Securing Personal Information

GBP takes measures to secure personal information.

Managerial measures: establishment and implementation of internal managerial plan and routine education on employees

Technical measures: management of accessibility through the means such as but not limited to setting password, managing access control on personal information processing system and equipping computers with security programs such as Vaccine software

4. Personal Information Protection Manager

The controller of the processed information is:

Young Ho Seo

Tel. 02 6275 5050

Fax. 02 6275 5060

Email. info@gbp.kr

When in need to consult or obtain advice regarding personal information in general, you may inquire national organizations

Korea Internet&Security Agency(<https://privacy.kisa.or.kr>)

Supreme Prosecutor's Office Cyber Crime Investigation Center(<http://icic.sppo.go.kr>)

Korean National Police Agency Cyber Bureau(<http://cyberbureau.police.go.kr>)

5. Changes of our Privacy policy

Current personal information policy is in action from Jan 2, 2019. If any changes are to follow according to the government's development on the law or the company's security technology, it will be posted on the homepage 7 days prior to implementation.

GBP Follows the law and regulation of Republic of Korea.